YOUNG MINDS AWARENESS TALK

One of our 2024 highlights was hosting Emma from Young Minds at our London office.

Her inspiring talk offered valuable insights into the charity's impactful initiatives and the incredible work they do to support mental health.

#HelloYellow 2024

In celebration of #WorldMentalHealthDay, the Tindall Riley team joined the #HelloYellow campaign, showing our support for YoungMinds by wearing yellow for the day. In total, we raised £200.

Ronald McDonald
House Charities™

MEAL PREPS

We continued our support for families staying at Ronald McDonald - Evelina House. This year, two groups of volunteers from Tindall Riley's London office visited RMH Evelina House in Lambeth on separate occasions to prepare and serve meals for the residents, offering comfort and care during challenging times.

Thank you to the volunteers So Young Yeo, Paul Vincent, Claire Alexander, Justin Olley, Julie French, Matthew Tam, Dolly Khandelwal, Hayley Connell, Jeannette Veldkamp, Georgia Philp, Micha-Leigh Dillaway, Jane Frondigoun, Chloe Christian, Wei Jien Yeow, Ikedi Harker and Georgina Benson.

GARDEN CLEANUP

In September, two of Tindall Riley's enthusiastic gardeners, Gareth Bellamy and James Stearns, dedicated their afternoon to weeding and tidying up the flowerbeds at Ronald McDonald House.

THANK YOU DAY

Nicola Spencer, Jane Frondigoun, Jennifer Dussard, and James Stearns represented Tindall Riley at a Thank You Day celebration tea at Ronald McDonald House in Lambeth, honoring over 35 years of the company's support for the charity and its volunteers.

CLOTHING DRIVE

Lorna Pasco, Jane Frondigoun, and Kristine Rjumina delivered a generous collection of high-quality clothing and accessories to Dress for Success, a charity empowering women for the workforce. Thank you to Tindall Riley staff for their contributions.

TINDALL RILEY CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY OVERVIEW

We mean it. Thank you!

Thanks to your generosity, you are helping us to achieve our mission.

The mission of Dress for Success is to empower women to achieve economic independence by providing a network of support, professional attire and the development tools to help women thrive in work and in life.

Together we can make a difference to the lives of women across Greater London.

Best,

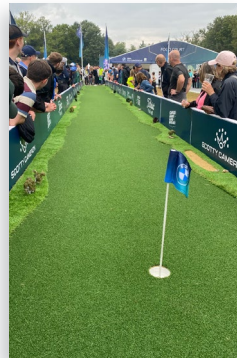

Maxine

PGA GOLF TOUR

In 2024, CALM hosted two exciting activities at the PGA Golf Tour - a Chipping Challenge and a Putting Challenge.

One of the highlights was the Chipping Challenge, where Lorna Pasco and four other volunteers encouraged golfers to try their luck at a hole-in-one. Participants eagerly joined in, contributing to the vibrant atmosphere. Over the entire week, CALM raised a staggering £55,000 to further its cause.

TALK TO STAFF

In October, Rachel Tysh from CALM gave a presentation on the charity's important work on preventing suicide, their new film, the CALM C.A.R.E. Kit, and their latest campaign 'Missed Birthdays'.

THE LONDON 10K RUN

In July, a team of 9 runners ran 10k to raise funds and awareness for The Manna Society. Everyone enjoyed the route which was filled with various bands, choirs, DJs and supporters and was a lot of fun to run.

Well done to the runners Carlos Peverelli, Ella Hagell, Mark Turnbull, Ayse Baker, William Hardy, Gareth Bellamy, So Young Yeo, Amy Darby and Jane Frondigoun.

A huge total of £1,800 was raised!

HARVEST FESTIVAL DONATIONS

In November we delivered a generous collection of donations.

The Manna Society shared the following message with us:

"Many thanks to Tindall Riley for your Harvest Festival gifts. The food that we have received will be used throughout the next twelve months to provide meals to some of the poorest members of our society."

The work we do here is a practical and compassionate response to poverty and homelessness. The majority of our funding and our foodstuffs come from the Christian community. Without the continuing generosity of our supporters, we would be unable to continue our work."

THE LONDON MARATHON

Robert Bowler completed the London Marathon in April, raising over £500 for the Manna Society.

Save the Children

TINDALL RILEY CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY OVERVIEW

CHRISTMAS JUMPER DAY FUNDRAISER 2024

We hosted another Christmas Jumper Day across our global hubs, raising funds for Save The Children charity. In 2024, the CSR Committee teamed up with the Sports & Social Committee to make the event even more exciting and hosted the 'Best Christmas Jumper Contest'.

With CSRC matching the donations, the total raised was an incredible £884!

CHRISTMAS GIFTS FOR SEAFARERS

Tindall Riley staff came together to support the Mission to Seafarers, bringing festive joy to those spending Christmas away from home.

In total, four boxes of gifts were wrapped and sent off to the Mission to Seafarers. Each gift included a mix of chocolate, lip balm, hand balm, body wash or hand cream.

Thank you to everyone who contributed to this initiative - by donating gifts or helping with the wrapping.

Seafarers receiving gifts at Tilbury.

TALK TO STAFF

In September, Nina Edy, the Communications Manager, Ruth Campbell, the Port Chaplain for the Thames region and Ed Pearce from the Mission to Seafarers gave an insight into the arduous lives of seafarers and the important work the Mission to Seafarers undertake to provide essential help and assistance.

KNITTED HATS AND SCARVES FOR SEAFARERS

Jacky Collingwood's contributions have been a cherished highlight of the year.

Ian Stokes, Head of Corporate Engagement and Partnerships at Stella Maris, visited four vessels in Southampton to distribute Jacky's knitted items to crew members.

TR REGIONAL HUBS

Our regional hubs have also participated in local initiatives, making a positive impact.

GREECE

In September, a team from our Greece office participated in the 'Race for the Cure' at Zappeio, joining thousands to raise awareness and funds for breast cancer research.

Well done to the runners: Elina Souli, Ioanna Exadaktylou, Danae Manta, Ruth Dresser, Sofia Syreloglou and Penelope Foka.

SINGAPORE

In 2024, the Singapore office made donations to various charities, including The Mission to Seafarers, the Handicaps Welfare Association (HWA), and the Singapore Cricket Club.
